World Championship Open and Women in 2023

The President of the Royal Netherlands Draughts Organization (KNDB) Frans de Jonge and former FMJD President Harry Otten have the honor to announce that The Netherlands wants to organize the World Championships Open and Women of 2023 in Wageningen. The venue will be the recently built Fletcher Hotel on the Wageningsche Berg (mountain of Wageningen) www.hotelwageningscheberg.nl The event is likely to take place at the end of the summer.

The Wageningsche Berg is a very special place with an excellent view on the Rhine River. Players and officials will be hosted in beautiful single person (double if necessary) rooms with full board.

The organization is in the hands of the Wageningen Draughts Club (WSDV) under the leadership of former FMJD President Harry Otten. The organization envisions a prize fund of €50,000 for the open tournament and €30,000 for women.

Further details will be announced in due course. Information can be obtained through KNDB.

The Netherlands,

Frans de Jonge

Harry Otten
